AMI President & CEO, David Errington

“AMI’s content teams are committed to providing a platform for the disability community and to share the stories that are unique and relevant to them.”

AMI is a media company dedicated to establishing and supporting a voice for Canadians with a disability, representing their interests, concerns and values through accessible media, reflection, and portrayal.

AMI’s content teams are committed to providing a platform for the disability community and to share the stories that are unique and relevant to them. AMI’s library of award-winning content on AMI-audio, AMI-tv, AMI+ and AMI-télé shine a light on the people and topics that are often overlooked or ignored in mainstream media.

We are dedicated to creating opportunities for the disability community through our internship and apprenticeship programs, providing paid opportunities in various departments. The AMI Scholarship program awards two $5,000 bursaries to two deserving students with a permanent disability; one from the English community and one from the French.

I encourage you to connect with us. If you are interested in learning more about AMI and our commitment to the disability community, drop us a line at info@ami.ca or visit our website AMI.ca. You can also follow us on Facebook, Instagram, X, YouTube or TikTok.

Steven Scott and Shaun Preece, hosts of Double Tap

AMI-tv is a television channel that is broadcast nationally in English. The channel offers two specialized features, open described video and closed captioning, on all of its programming. The makeup of the programming is over 95% Canadian content, and features AMI original programming every day of the week.

All of AMI-tv original programs feature Integrated Described Video (IDV)—a groundbreaking style of description pioneered by AMI to create a more seamless experience for the audience. IDV tells the story with natural, ambient sound and description from the cast during production, eliminating the need for a secondary audio track.

Scholarship Program

Launched in 2012, The AMI Robert Pearson Memorial Scholarship program was created to ensure that post-secondary education is available to members of the disability community.

The program is open to Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada with a permanent disability who are currently registered in and returning to a full-time program of study at an accredited Canadian post secondary college or university. AMI will award two $5,000 bursaries to two deserving students with a permanent disability; one from the English community and one from the French.
